Casoline Can Found Near Door and Oil Sprinkled on Stairway at 6211 Columbia Avenue.

At 1:04 a. m. the first alarm was urned in by pulling a hook on a fire box at Clifton and Columbia avenues. The nearest fire engine company went to the scene and found a blaze in a two-story frame residence at 6211 Columbia avenue, which has been unoccupied for five months. A gasoline can was near the front door and gasoline had been sprinkled on a stair-way leading to the second floor. The fire was extinguished with damage estimated at $200.

"I always had the race won du ng the last six furlongs," said Ev ertt, the midget jockey of four miles, 856 yards was nin ninutes, 47 2-5 seconds. The great spectacle of steepl asing was one of the finest Grand Nationals ever run from spectator's viewpoint, with the su ning on the course and the field of bobbing horses visible most o the time through powerful glasses. Mrs. Gemmell bought Gregalach for 5000 guineas (about $25,000) when the former owner, Tom K Laidlaw, offered him for sale a Newmarket in the spring of 1927. This was the first race he had ever won under her colors. Easter Hero was purchased by Whitney from the late Alfred Lowenstein, Belgian financier and in-ternational banker, who disappeared from an airplane crossing the English Channel last year. When the race was over eight ockeys were in the hospital, although none was seriously injured They had bruises and abrasions from tumbles. One civilian was taken to the hospital. He rushed across the course to save two chi dren who were endangered by a riderless horse, which reared and Heavy Rain Follows Sunshine. After four hours' brilliant sunshine this morning, the skies became overcast and it started raining heavily, much as it has for the last two days.

The rain failed to deter crowds gathering for the Grand National Steeplechase, however, and thousands passed through the gates. The heavy rain has muddled the countryside, and there was heavy going over parts of the nearly ive-mile long course.

Thousands flocked to Aintree in every sort of conveyance, airplanes, trains, motor cars and horse carts. Late steamers arriving at Liver-pool brought new large contingents of Americans, all hopeful of seeing one of seven American entries

The bars at Aintree functioned at full speed. Someone estimated 2000 bartenders and barmaids were in attendance. Two of the places dispensed only champagne. At the busy beer bars the bartenders were supported on either side by a man to make sandwiches and another American-owned horses competing in the steepelchase were: Billy Barton, owned by Howard Bruce, ridden by T. Cullihan; Easter Hero, owned by John Hay Whitney, ridden by J. Maloney; Bright's Boy, owned by Stephen Sanford, ridden by T. Leader; Mount Etna, owned by S. Sanford, owned by J. B. Balding, ridden by J. B. Balding; Ballyhanwood, owned by M. D. Blair, ridden by Goswell; Darracq, owned by A. C. Schwartz, ridden by G. Poole, The Aintree racing plant is entirely unlike anything in America. On the vast turf-covered plain there are a half dozen tracks for steeplechasing, hurdling and flat going. The circuits overlap one another and the five-furlong straight course and the galloping stretch intersect the whole lot. The longest circuit of all is the four course, which is two laps of a triangular shaped track, the base of which is about a mile long. From the corner, where the National starts and where the stands are placed, the horses run almost called and on days such as yester-day, after the first half mile they're blotted out from sight in the fog. Diminishing specks of horseflesh and gaily garbed jockeys can be kept in view with powerful glasses on clear days but when visibility is low the crowd knows nothing of what has happened to the runners at the most difficult jumps until what's left of the field rounds the big curve onto the half-mile stretch and gallops for the spectacular hedge and water jump directly fronting the stands. Round they to again over perilous barriers unil the finish, which is in full view of the crowds in the stands.

Hospital and Ambulance Ready. Rarely is the Grand National run without accident to riders or horses. One jockey has been killed and many horses hurt so badly they had to be destroyed. A hospital is maintained on the course with an ambulance and doctors ready to rush to victims of crashes. Veterinarians are on hand to care for injured horses.

There are 30 jumps in all, 16 of them being high thorn hedges with tricky ditches, water jumps and natural streams to vary the thrills. Fourteen of the 16 abstables are Five hedges about four and a half feet high offer the first tests for the horses before they come to the first big hurdle, the famous Becher's Brook fence, 5 feet high, 3 feet wide, with a brook on the other side 5½ feet wide. This is the graveyard of the hopes of hundreds of jockeys, but it is no more difficult than Valentine's Brook, which is similar, or the canal turn The canal turn besides calling for a great leap, until this year had a veritable death trap on the other a veritable death thap on a big ditch, which often was filled with horses which failed to the cleanly. Besides the hedge and the ditch, the canal turn involves a quick shift to the left. It is the most dangerous spot on the course.

It was at this jump last year that John Hay Whitney's Easter Hero got caught crossways in the hedge and almost brought down the whole field with him. For today's race the big ditch has been After the canal turn comes Valentine's big jump and then the horses take it easy over five lower

114 LOSE LIVES IN MOVIE THEATER FIRE IN RUSSIA

Men, Women and Children Fight to Escape Through Only Exit in Wooden Building at Igolkiner.

By the Associated Press.

MOSCOW, March 22 .- One hundred fourteen men, women and children lost their lives after a blaze in a firetrap motion picture theater in the village of Igolkino. Vladimir Province, 240 miles north-east of Moscow. Seventeen others were injured.

The theater was of wooden con struction and had but one exit. The spread rapidly through the frail structure, those inside jamming themselves in the single doorway. Some attributed the blaze to a drunken projection operator, When the fire engines arrived the building was nearly consumed.

Because so many of the victims were parents the Department of Education has taken steps to care for their orphans. The State Department appropriated __ 15,000 rubles ($7500) for the bereaved families and will adopt further re ready has begun an investigation Hoover to Attend Stone Burial.

One Price and One Price Only

ONE good suit of clothes costs about the same to manufacture as another. But the price of such clothes to the wearer differs widely, depending on the expense involved in getting these garments into the wearer's hands.

During the twenty years we have been in the business of manufacturing fine clothes to sell direct to wearer, we have been gradually cutting out all unnecessary selling expense. Today with our enormous Buying Power and our nation-wide chain of retail stores, we are bringing really fine clothes to you at a price which probably has never been duplicated in the entire clothing industry.

Make no mistake about it—BARTLETT Clothes are good clothes. The low price is made possible by our direct method of bringing these fine clothes to you—not by any sacrifice of quality in the garments themselves. You save $10 to $20 by buying direct through our own stores.

"$60Styles— $40 Values"

That's What a Nationally-Known Merchandising Expert Said When He Walked Into Our St. Louis Store

This chance remark of one of America's foremost style authorities bears out our contention that, no matter how much you may pay, you can't buy more style in men's clothes than you get here for only $23.50. And you can't buy better fabrics or better workmanship for less than $35 to $40.

But don't take our word for it.
You be the judge. Compare

He was pilot of the rescue plane that took Commander Byrd and Malcolm Hanson, the radio operator, to the mountains, left them there with Gould and brought June and Balchen back to the base. "I should think you should be and said: "Yes, it looked worse and worse, and it was. It blew harder and harder and at 4:30, when I tried to get a message through to the base I spied the indicator on the plane. It showed 88 miles an hour, and that was just the beginning. against hope. In the afternoon we were all able to go over, for the wind was only blowing 40 miles an hour, nothing at all after what we had had, and there was no more loose snow to drift. The plane lay about 50 feet from where she had first hit.

"The ice was all splintered there. I forgot to tell you that the whole basin was ice under a thin coating of snow, because in the summer vater runs off the mountain sides and makes a regular pool in the valley in which we were camped. The plane had bounced after that first smash and then skidded to a resting place. "She evidently had been flying,

ANOTHER BREAK IN MISSISSIPPI LEVEE AT QUINCY

12,000 More Acres in Indian Grave Drainage District Flooded Within Last 24 Hours.

By the Associated Press. QUINCY, Ill., Ma

QUINCY, Ill., March 22.—The swollen Mississippi, raised by the heavy spring flow from its tributaries, crashed through the second levee of the Indian Grave drainage district today and inundated 12,000 additional acres of corn and wheat land: It was the second break in less than 24 hours, and put approximately 20,000 acres of rich land under an average of seven feet of water.

With millions of gallons of water with millions of gallons of water pouring through the two breaks, patrols fought to keep dikes of some 50,000 additional surrounding acres from giving away. Eight hundred homes would be in the flood path if the levees of the Mark and Fabius districts across the river in Missouri, the Lima Lake region to the north and the South Quincy district gave away.

The Indian Grave levee district breaks brought a precipitous drop in the level of the river at this point. It reached a 20.3-foot stage yesterday, a few feet within the record mark. From upriver, however, came reports of a continued rise. The Keckuk gauge recorded 18.85 feet last night, a new record and a rise of four inches in 12 hours.

The Keckuk flood was so great as to close the wagen bridge between Keckuk and Hamilton, Ill., about two feet of water flowing over the approach at the Illinois side.

Many factories in the Iowa cities along the river have been forced to close. Three pumps, each having a capacity of 40,000 gallons a minute, were at work in the Indian Grave district until water overflowed the pump house.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 22.

—Red Cross officials estimated yesterday that 26,000 persons had been made homeless by floods in South Alabama and North Florida and reports of additional refugees were received at Maxwell Field, Government flying field here. The flyers have been taking a leading

"On the second day we could tell from the messages that we received that you were beginning to get worried and we neard you broadcasting that the weather was fine and to come back. Then we would look at the wreck. Come back. We wanted to badly enough. Then we picked up a message: "We are preparing to come for you. Dog teams leave today."

"Our weather was line. Every hour I wore a path to the radio to copy the same blasted thing. Then I tramped back and Larry would say: "What's the news?"
"I'd read him the same message and he finally yelled: If you read that thing again I'll throw the teapot at you."

"The only thing that bothered us much was that we knew you people here and the folks at home would be worried about us when you could get no message from us saying that we were all right.

"We had some peanut tubes and I decided to try to solder them to the wires of the transmitter in place of regular tubes with a screw driver for a soldering iron and the little solder that was on the tips of the tubes. I worked half a day at them and finally got them hooked up and got good radiation. "That was encouraging and at 4 o'clock the day we were found I was all ready to transmit but they were not listening as it was not

Tunes In on Rescue Plane.

"All of a sudden I tuned in on the Fairchild plane and yelled to Larry and Bernt; 'I hear the Fairchild. She just took off I guess. We had received a message that morning about fixing a tee at which to land and then began running around getting it ready. It was a grand feeling.

was a grand feeling.

"I stayed in the plane and it was cold. And I never did get a chance to try out my patched-up transmitter. I finally heard Hanson in the plane say: "The mountains are in sight.' Then, 'Don't see anything.'

sight.' Then, 'Don't see anything.'

"By that time Larry and Bernt saw the plane. They were heading a little north of us and Bernt set off a smoke bomb. When he thought they were going to pass by he tore open another bomb, just ripped it apart and dropped it on the other one. Hanson was just saying he didn't see us when I heard his radio stutter and then signaled back that he had seen our blinker. It was the sputtering smoke bomb that he took for a blinker. I quit then and got out of the good old Fokker and there was the Commander up above us just gliding in for a landing. Maybe that wasn't a welcome sign.

"And that's all there was to it except that I don't want to see any more wind like that. Once is

POLICE 52-HOLIDAY BILL KILLED IN HOUSE COMMITTEE

JEFFERSON CITY, March 22 -The House Municipal Corporations Committee last night killed two bills by Representative James L Wren of St. Louis, which would increase the number of holidays for police officers in St. Louis and Kansas City from 24 to 52 days a rate of one day a week, or permit them to accumulate for six months them to accumulate for six months. and take the accumulated days as a vacation. The other bill provida vacation. The other bill provided that the district captains should designate the days on which police officers could be off duty. The present law leaves this to the Chief of Police. Representative Huber of St. Louis, chairman of the committee, said the bils would mean mittee, said the bils would mean saturday when a mule kicked him in the stemmer. Mule was one of a group of brothers who fed thousands of mules for the Southern cotton markets, died this morning from injuries inflicted last saturday when a mule kicked him in the stemmer. an additional cost of $350,000 a in the stomach. Muir was one of year in operation of the St. Louis the largest Missouri consignors of the department to meet the requirements, if 52 holidays a year were given to each patrolman and other department employes affected by the bill.

Following the hearing, Wren asone of the bills increased the number of holidays, and provided the police department employes could accept the holidays at the pension bill, if the additional holiday bills were favorably remainded.

PLANNING MENUS FOR THIS WEEK'S MEALS

Clever Housewives Give Thought to Arranging the Family Meals.

This period before the spring vegetables and fruits are plen-tiful, and when the best season for the winter foods is past, is the time when most effort is required to plan meals that are varied, appetizing nutritious and not too expensive. To do this often taxes all the ingenuity of the home manager, but it is not an impossi-ble task. Market supplies vary in different parts of the country, but the foods used in the menus for this week are such as may be had in most localities. The improved and rapid transportation of food supplies has greatly increased the variety of fresh foods generally

A roast of mutton, the leg or shoulder, forms the meat for this week's Sunday dinner. This is served with currant jelly (any tart jelly may be used instead of currant), pan-browned potatoes and creamed kohl-rabi. The potatoes are best if parboiled for five min-ntes in salted water, and then baked in the pan around the meat.

This takes about 40 minutes. We have taken advantage of the fact that oysters are still in season, and are serving them creamed for supper on Sunday night, Creamed oysters can be insipid or they can be really delicious, depending en-tirely upon the character of the

For four people use one pint of oysters. Pick them over to re-move any bits of shell, and then drain them, saving the juice. Melt five tablespoons of butter, add five tablespoons of flour and, when well blended, stir in one cup of oyster liquid and one cup of thin cream or top milk. Cook this slowly, stirring constantly until very thick and smooth. Season with one tablspoon of lemon juice, one-half teaspoon of Worcestershire, one teaspoon of salt and one-eighth teaspoon of pepper. Add the drained oysters and cook for five minutes. The oysters will thin out the sauce a little as their juice is extracted as they heat. Serve very hot over toast or hot biscuits.

Lunches this week have been made largely vegetable meals, and there is also one vegetable dinner planned. In this latter green peppers stuffed with corn make the main dish. Allow one pepper for each person. For six ppepers mix together two cups of canned corn, two well-beaten eggs, one cup of milk, one-half cup of soft bread-crumbs, one teaspoon of minced onion, and salt and pepper to Parboil the peppers for five minutes in boiling water, drain, cut a slice from the top and remove the seeds. Stuff the peppers with the corn mixture, and spread a thick layer of buttered breadcrumbs over the top of each. Place close together in a baking pan and cover water. Bake 35 minutes in a mod-

FEW HOUSEWIVES FAMILIAR WITH VARIETIES OF CORN

There Are Several Types of the Commercial Canned Product. Statistics tell us that about 300,-000,000 cans of corn are sold each

And yet how many of the housewives who buy a large percentage of this amount know anything about the product? To most of them, a can of corn is simply

There are two kinds, however, available—the whole or shoe-peg or Maryland style of corn, and in the Maryland variety, corn is cut so that the whole kernel is kept intact; in the Maine style, the top part of the kernel is cut off and mixed with the creams soft contents of the lower part of the kernel which is pressed or forced out by scrapers.

MILK TREATED BY RADIO

Experiments Along This Line Are Occupying German Scientists. The radio is extending its uses day by day, and among its latest developments we have the news that Prof. Karl Seidel of the University of Vienna, in Austria by which milk, treated by radio waves of short length, can be kept sweet for a period of from three to four weeks,

It is said that health authorities in Germany are now testing the process. The theory is that all the germs which cause milk to spoil are killed by the action of the short wave length, though the milk itself coes not change in flavor.

As digestible as milk itself

HERE is a new delight for the lovers of good cheese-Velveeta. It is a new milk product in the form of cheese that for high food value, smooth velvety texture and exquisite flavor leaves nothing to be desired. For Velveeta represents the contribution of science to the art of cheese making. Through the aid of scientific research, special methods and equipment, we combine more Vitamins, Lactose (milk sugar), Calcium and other minerals of whole milk in making Velveeta than ever we were able to obtain before. The addition of these precious food elements in Velveeta greatly enhances its food value and makes it as digestible as milk itself.

Velveeta is made with the utmost care from a blend of choice mellow American and ripe old Canadian cheddar cheese. It tastes like cheese, looks like cheese, but because of its greater food value it should be called a super-cheese.

You can use Velveeta the same as you would use any cheese. It spreads like butter or it can be sliced when chilled. It melts, dissolves and blends so readily with other foods that for cooking purposes its superiority is at once apparent. Besides its exceptional appetite appeal, Velveeta is an invigorating dairy food that anyone can eat freely and often. Try a package, for if you like cheese, you will love Velveeta, and it will become a welcome addition to your daily fare. Your dealer has it.

HEARING ON TWO BILLS TO CURB PRICE-FIXING

Acts Would Broaden Anti-Trust Law to Include Laundries and Cleaners.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch

JEFFERSON CITY, March 22 .-Hearings on two bills designed to close loopholes in the existing Missourl antitrust law, by prohibiting combinations or agreements to fix and maintain the price of any service rendered, and prohibiting rebating or price discrimination by oil companies in the distribution of gasoline, were heard last night by the House Judiciary Committee. Action on the bill: was deferred until the next meeting.

The measure would bring concerns rendering service within the rovisions of the antitrust law, already covering the sale of commodities. It is aimed particularly at laundries and cleaning establishments, according to the author, Representative McLeod of St.

Several unofficial investigations of alleged price fixing in St. Louis by laundries, cleaning establishments and other concerns selling a service, and not commodities, have been ineffective. The Attorney-General on several occasions has ruled no antitrust proceeding could be instituted against such pricefixing, as the existing antitrust law does not deal with combinations to fix the price of a service.

Broadens Meaning of Law. McLeod's bill provides that any persons who creates, enters into or participates in any pool, agreement, combination or understand-ing with any other person or persons to regulate, control, fix or maintain the price of any service. other than the fixing of a standard wage by a labor union, shall be deemed guilty of conspiracy in re-straint of trade, within the meaning of the antitrust law.

Provisions of the bill have caused some alarm to bankers and grain merchants, who believed that their fixed charges for handling accounts might be classed as law violations if the bill was passed.

Amendments were sought exsions of the bill. A. A. Speer of Jefferson City president of the Missouri State Bankers' Association, told, the committee the bill in its present form might prohibit banks from agreeing upon a monthly service charge for handling account in which the average daily balance fell below the minimum considered profitable by the banks.

Brokers Seek Exemption. C. B. Rader, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis. W. T. Brooking, a member of the Exchange, and L. Newton Wylder. attorney for the Kansas City Board of Trade, urged exemption of handling charges by grain brokers.

Members of the committee asked what difference there was between a combination or agreement to fix the price of a service, and a combination to fix the sales price of any commodity. Wylder declared there was a difference, but when pressed by committee members did not define it. He asked Representative Baird of Jasper County why the bill exempted labor unions from the prohibition against fixing the prices of service. Representative Snyder of Lewis County interjected a reply "the unions have more why they get exemptions."

A bill, directed against granting of rebates, price discriminations of bonuses by oil companies to retail agents to whom they sell gasoline and oils, was introduced by Representative Blair of Cole County, Ringe of St. Charles, and Robertson of Saline County.

Blair, without naming any particular company, said some of the large oil concerns had developed a means of evading the antitrust law on price-fixing and restraint of trade by granting rebates, or periodical bonuses, to retail distribu-ters purchasing gasoline from these companies, which enabled these re-tailers to undersell independent competitors and put them out of business. Blair asserted discriminations were made possible by the wholesaler announcing a supposed.
ly uniform price for all gasoline it sold at wholesale, and then paying rebates or bonuses to certain deal-

SENATOR BORAH FINDS FLAW IN DRY AMENDMENT_TOO LATE

Thinks Time Limit Fixed for Ratification by States Was Unconstitutional.

Ey the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 22,-Chuckling at what he considered was an oversight by wets, Senator Borah (Rep.), Idaho, dry leader, yesterday pointed out a defect in the form of the eighteenth amendment which he believes might at one time have been used to advantage in an attack upon the constitutionality of that amend-

Borah disclosed, 10 years after the amendment has become op-erative, that he believed the provision in the amendment giving the states seven years in which to ratify the amendment was uncon-

He held that, if this point had been taken to the Supreme Court the constitutionality of the amend-ment might have been seriously questioned because it attempted to ay down a rule not expressed by the Constitution.

Borah said, however, that it is too late for the wets to raise this point. The Supreme Court has the dry law,

Attorney for District and Judge Hodgdon Argue Question Before Women Voters.

torneys for the Webster Groves Sewer District, and Probate Judge Sam D. Hodgdon, an opponent of the present organization of the district, debated the Webster Groves sewer situation yesterday afternoon before the League of Women Voters at the home of Mrs. Walter F. Koken, 364 Jeffer-

Judge Hodgdon is leading a fight against the Ralph Act, under which the district is organized and is seeking to have the law amended by the present Legislature. He suggested that the northern part of Websters Groves, badly in need of sewers, be or-ganized as a separate district, declaring it to be unfair to include the southern part of the city, many parts of which are sparsely populated, and which is in a distinct the Missouri Association for street and highway safety for a driver's license for every person operating an automobile on Missouri high-ways. The bill was introduced by Senator Cave. The bill also contains several other safety recommendations by the group.

The committee killed a bill, presented by Senator Davis of Kansas City, abolishing the county highway overseers of Jackson County and placing all road supervision under the highway engineer. Senator Casey of Kansas City charged in the committee hearing the bill was for political purposes to enable the "Republicans to oust the Democrats" from control of

That A. M. Ryckoff, the contractor for the three districts, was overpaid by the city not less than $175,000 for sidewalk repaving which he did not do, and which could not possibly have been done in the three districts. That the records of inspection in the office of Director of Public Utilities Pritchard were so incomplete that no information with regard to the actual work of contractor Ryckoff and its comparison with the actual specifications could be obtained. Comptroller Nolte declared that the records were in such condition that they were useless and he was compelled to hire inspectors of his own, in the attempt to verify the items in the contractor's bills.

That for the entire contract Ryckoff was paid a total of $1,856,476.67. This payment was $656.851.78 more than in his bid and was $300,000 over the highest bid submitted. For brick repaving Ryckoff was paid $225, 686.59. The engineers' survey shows that he was entitled to only $50,496.38 for this item, but collected $175,000 in excess of that sum. IN BEHALF OF JUDGE FARIS.

The possible appointment of Federal District Judge

An unusual feature of the news is the Republican It is implied that the local Republican organization's friendliness to Judge Faris is accounted for in part by its desire to get control of the District Court patronage. As to that we have no opinion. Certainly the worthier inference is warranted that much of this Republican support is inspired by a sincere appreciation of Judge Faris' exceptional equipment for the Circuit bench.

In character, experience and intellectual attainment Judge Faris qualifies finely. To many citizens those are the considerations that should determine judicial selections. Party affiliation ought really to have no part in choosing men for the solemn service of administering justice. It is argued that the method of selecting Federal Judges on partisan grounds has justified itself in the history of integrity and capacity written by our Federal courts. That seems to us a plausible way of begging the question. In any event the practice of naming a Federal Judge because he happens to belong to the party of the President is essentially unsound. If by that process we have been free from scandal or incapacity, save in a few isolated instances, is it not a matter of good fortune rather than correct practice? The Post-Dispatch is glad to see politics adjourned in behalf of Judge Faris. Should this demonstration become a Comptroller Nolte, who remarked to the Post-Dis- precedent and mature into recognized custom it will be a triumph for public policy. The result will be better courts and truer justice.

WHAT THE NEW STREET LIGHTS REVEALED.

What Is Happening to Marriage?

Originally the family was held intact by economic necessity; with the entrance of the machine age and its economic emancipation of women, the family as an institution began to crumble; the war, the automobile, psychoanalysis and birth control are additional factors that have altered old-fashioned marriage.

CHARLES W. WOOD in THE NATION

the idea of romantic marriage gripped the Western world. That a girl had a right to select her mate "according to the promptings of her own heart" may have been held as a theory ages before this, but efore the industrial revolution. For the family, up to this time, had been not only beings learned how to live humanly.' With ever, there was no particular reason why the individual should longer subordinate himself to the family. The family, therefore, simply faded out of human affairs, decade after decade and generation after generation. Only a few traces of it remain today, and in America there is scarcely

Once again we have couples mating according to instinct, and raising children in their love nests. The nest, to be sure, is called "home" and the brood is called a "family," while the public acknowledgment that the couple are about to embark on such an enterprise is called "marriage. But the old meanings have disappeared from the terms. People do not express the non-self any longer through marriage. Their very motive in marrying is more likely to be self-expression. The boy of today s likely to marry for no other reason than that he is fascinated by the girl, and tha girl is likely to accept him because she wants "a home of her own" in which she can escape from the dictation of her

With the passing of the family and the rise of capitalism, theories of individualism became rampant. There was not, however, any real individualism. It was quite as necessary as ever that the individual should he subordinated to human society might be emancipated from the family, from feudalism and from any other outworn container of human life; but man uld not be emancipated from the law of his being, and human life is not individual, but social.

In the machine, however, man discovered the technique of allround co-operation. The machine was the child of science. science could not be individual. The chine could not be private. Man did not discover this all at once, nor has he yet discovered it completely; nevertheless, the of socialization. It has brought the whole world together so that every part is dependent on every other part. It is the most human and the most holy institution which has appeared in human history to date. The machine has outmoded human slavery. It has emancipated woman and brought her to a position co-equal with man. It has abolished hell as a dominant concept in h man affairs. It has already pointed the way to the complete abolition of poverty.

Many intellectuals shrink from the thought that men are now in danger of of dominating it. One might as well grieve that he is being carried by his automobile was less than two centuries ago that , instead of having to carry it. For the machine is nothing but human knowledge in action. It is man functioning as man, in the place of animals trying to function as

And what is happening to marriage? Just and began to live in the machine, matridown, matrimony became less and less i portant. The first step in its downfall was the attempt to make matrimony an affair of the heart instead of an institution for the subordination of individual instincts to the common good. Every girl from now on, it was supposed, could select her lord and master according to the promptings of her palpitating bosom, instead of according to the dictation of the family.

Of course it did not work. The family, whatever might be said against it, was a substantial institution, and the new-style lord and master was not. He might be ever so well meaning, but as a human society take more and more charge of things. And so, eventually, she became what she is. On' the way, although she was forever talking about marriage, she built up the grand institution of divorce.

.. . . Then came the automobile and the war. and psychoanalysis and the knowledge of birth control. The automobile made it impossible to chaperon the youngsters any longer. The war destroyed their respect for the alleged wisdom of adults. Psychoanalysis encouraged them to be curious as to matters which had aroused fear and bling theretofore. The knowledge of birth control completed the revolution. To be sure, the solution has not yet been found, but the younger generation is on its way. I do not know what the solution will be. I only know that it will not be solved until the machine has evolved to its logical destiny. For it is in the machine that man is to the machine, not to the husband, that woman must now look for the econor security of her offspring. The machine will not make anybody "independent," for inependence is now seen to be a myth. But it will presently make us all interdependent, instead of dependent upon a husband or a father or a brave hunter or an individual money-getter. The machine is destined presently to destroy all class divisions and all the barriers which separate man from man. But there is no reason to believe that it will destroy sex. What it is doing, rather, is to present sex to human life much in the same way that it has already presented electricity. Time was when man looked at lightning as a devastating power. Those times are over. and he is finding some real uses for elec-

Edward Trebere, 35 years old, a Edward Trebere, 35 years old, a bartender, 1907 Newhouse avenue, owned the Mayor body and was placed in the observation ward breeches," and they looked to Tarlton to save them from interference at City Hospital yesterday after he by the police and from prosecution the courts. He kept his comleaping in front of a switch engine pacts faithfully. They never called for pelp in vain, and on election he switching crew and the locomo day the ranks of crime and its imtive was stopped just as the pilot ediate beneficiaries, the saloon, the gambling den and the house of ostitution, paid him back with he told police he wanted to die and had started toward the river when upound interest." "That," McDaniel continued, "is he saw the engine and jumped in the gentleman who has had more to do with the lighting contracts and the work under them than any other one man during this entire dministration. He had something o do with the Ryckoff contract. He has secured contracts for himself amounting to $4,000,000 in round numbers. The people of the city have today learned some of the details about how they have en cheated under the Ryckoff contract. They have not earned about how they fared un der the Tarlton contracts, but when you read what the congressional committee says about the way he handled the Mayor of East St Louis, what is your opinion as to way in which he dealt with the Mayor of St. Louis? When ou read how he used the people f East St. Louis, what do you nk he would do to the people of Louis, if he had a chance?

Comparative Charges. "I will give you a few sample facts now. I think you will learn ore before this campaign is over We already know, according to the facts and figures published today, that Ryckoff was paid $600.000 more than his bid. Hold that fact a your mind and then listen to this. Ryckoff was paid 30 cents per square foot for replacing unreinforced concrete sidewalk taken up during the course of installing the lighting system. Tarlton was paid 42 cents per square foot. Ryckoff was paid 11 cents per square foot for replacing brick sidewalk, Tarlton was paid 18 ents per square foot. He was paid hese prices in contrast with the Ryckoff prices for identically the same kind of work done within one ear of the time the Ryckoff work vas done. He got those prices for I' known as the downtown area he south. Jefferson on the wes e east. Under one item in Dis 'A' he collected 42 cents in stead of 30 cents, the price paid in the Ryckoff contract on 176,000 square feet of repaving of unreinforced concrete. On another item he collected 18 cents per square foot instead of 11 cents, the price paid in the Ryckoff contract for repaving 378.328 square feet of brick sidewalk. These are only wo items. There were 111 items he Tarlton contract. Now, if is shown by the figures read today his city has been bilked $175,000 on two of the 36 items shown in he Ryckoff contract, how much io you figure the city has been bilked under the Tariton contracts?

Miller's Duty. "To sum it all up in a nutshell the situation is this: Mayor Miller either knows what has been going on or he does not know it. If he knows, then he is guilty of a gross breach of trust in not acting on his knowledge. If he does not know, then he ought to get out and let omebody in who can find able to find out the facts. I have been Circuit Attorney of this cir I think I know how to find out the facts. If I am elected Mayor I will find out what is going on and I will do it within six months from the day I am sworn in, or I will

I would scorn to warm the Mayor's chair, collect the Mayor's salary, stand before the people of this community as the head o their government and acknowledge myself unable to find out anything wrong in work done in installing a great improvement which brings the city up over $4.000,000 short. If elected, the first bit of lighting will do will be to turn an a light on the inside of the City Hall."

LEADERS WONDER WHETHER HOOVER HAS A FARM PLAN

ed a plan, the McNary-Haugen which President Coolidge ve toed, and which Hoover opposed Callers at the White House hav een told that anyone who wants to know the President's ideas of farm relief has only to read th speeches which he delivered during e campaign. They have also been referred to the Republicac platform. This is irony with vengeance, because some of then helped to write the platform declaration, and their chief concer was to insure that it means as little

The comedy of the situation can not be realized until the politics of is recalled. During the campaign all the Republican farm leaders in congress supported Hoover, excep Senator Norris of Nebraska. Many of them, like Senator Brookhart of Iowa, repeatedly assured their constituents that Hoover had a relie plan-probably the greatest relief plan ever devised-ard that its details would be disclosed in time. Some went so far as to intimate that Hoover had described it to them privately,

A Painful Possibility. If it now develops that Hoover never had any intention of offering a plan, and that his farm support ers in the campaign were fudging when they said he had, the conse quences are likely to be painful, and all of them know it.

Norris took the position then that if Hoover had a plan he should make it known during the campaign, and that until he did so forris would support Gov. Smith, she had indersed the McNary Haugen bill and the principle of the equalization fce.

Hyde Leaves City Unexpectedly. Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde left Washington late last night for a 10-day trip to Chicago, renton and Kansas City. He was cheduled to be one of the first renton and Kansas City. witnesses before the Senate Com-mittee on Agriculture which will neet Monday to hold public hearings on the new farm relief bill. His departure was interpreted to-day by the farm bloc leaders to mean that neither he nor President Hoover was prepared at present to give the administration plan fo

Hyde's departure was totally up expected. He had had an appoint ment at the White House today to present a group of co-operative leaders, but they were introduced to the President by an official of the Department of Agriculture. Before leaving, Hyde stated that the trip was necessitated by his personal business affairs. He explained that he had been called to Washington on short notice and had been compelled to leave some of his personal affairs at loose farm relief.

Chairman McNary of the Senate Committee on Agriculture said to-day that Hyde's departure would not cause a postponement of the committee hearings. Hyde had written McNary that he would be willing to testify at the proper McNary said that Senator Smith W. Brookhart (Rep.), Iowa probably would be the first witness, and that Hyde would be

If the committee holds to it present schedule, the hearings will virtually completed by the time Hyde returns. McNary said, how ver, that Hyde would be requested to testify even though he re turned after the formal hearings were completed.

The latest development, indicat ng that the President will pas the farm problem on to Congress, instantly stimulated the talk of reiving the old McNary-Haugen bil one reason being that it is the only plan Congress has, at least the only one on which a majority has eve been able to agree. More than one Republican congressman suggested that this was the most obvious way of passing the problem right back to the President. Such talk had been prevalent but not much importance had been attached to it previously, because of the general assumption that Hoover, in view of his campaign utterances, surely must have a play which he intended to submit eventually. But if he has a plan, they cannot understand why he leaves them to guess the nature of it or why he should reserve his opin-ions until after they have initiated measure of their own.

"If you'll read an afternoon newspaper you will see that unbelievable things have happened in the Miller administration, things that are unforgettable. I thought as I read that it wouldn't be had to have a man who had held the office of Public Prosecutor in the Mayor's office for four years."

At the conclusion of the pro-gram the chairman, Miss Alberta Allen, held up a copy of yester-day's Post-Dispatch and said: you all get copies of the Post-Dispatch tonight because in a huge headline it says: 'City Paid $175,-000 for Work Not Done on Light-ing Contract.'"

W. R. Orthwein Asks Public to Withhold Judgment on Alleged $175,000 Over-Payment to Ryckoff.

DEFENDS RECORD OF G. L. TARLTON

Denies Administration's Responsibility and Declares Present Contract Is Honestly Handled.

William R. Orthwein, in charge of radio speaking in the Repub-lican city campaign, last night discussed the charge of excessive payments by the city under A. M. Ryckoff's lighting installation contract, contained in an exclusive article in yesterday's Post-Dispatch. Orthwein spoke on station KMOX. He asked voters to "with hold judgment" on the matter.

He took occasion to present a statement in defense of G. Locke Tarlton, holder of large lighting Tartton, holder of large lighting contracts and close friend of Mayor Miller. Tarlton, he said, was ready to show that "every ounce" of material called for by his contracts had been used. Orthwein also warned Lawrence McDaniel, Democratic candidate for Mayor, that if he did not quit making hints of graft, the Republican speakers would begin to talk about McDaniel's "easy-going, so-so" record as cuit Attorney

Referring to "the scandalous at-tack in today's Post-Dispatch,"

It will be thoroughly investigated, and punishment will be meted out to those who deserve it The entire matter will be ully answered.

"The Post-Dispatch has had the ormation, whatever it is, for a hey were called on by Mayor Milto present the evidence, and not do so. Nor did they give formation to the grand jury, Defends Ousting of Wall.

drawn under Ralf Toensfeldt, of the lighting division under ctor Wall, in office at the being of Miller's administration. e charter requires that such tracts be let to the lowest responsible bidder, and Ryckoff's bid was the lowest.

"Mayor Miller and a majority of Board of Public Service were satisfied with the plans onsfeldt, because of the loos anner in which they were drawn, hey feared the result might be such thing as is now charged. ce, the Mayor caused an ininto Ryckoff's contract. -Dispatch reporters were pres.

Instead of being commended his effort to protect the city. Mayor was widely criticised and accused of favoritism, and was threatened with a mandamus It was found necessarve to the recommendation of Di-Wall and award the

"Shortly after, the Mayor asked for the resignations of Toensfeld and Wall. He was obliged to remove Wall. The Mayor, for this act, was accused of everything on the calendar. A movement to recall him was instituted, and the attack on him was supported by he Post-Dispatch.

"Only last night, McDaniel add-ed his criticism of the Mayor for removing those 'faithful public servants,' Toensfeldt and Wall. "This charge of a shortage of material is a complicated matter, which requires much checking and re-checking. The Democratic press will try to make you believe that the rest of the lighting contract is crooked. Already, aspersions have been cast on Tarlton, was ready, and would at any time Withhold Judgment. "Under Mayor Miller, on all ighting contracts since the Ryckoff contract, a double checking has been provided for. The Department of Public Utilities has had its corps of inspectors, and a special corps engaged by Comptroller Nolte, under direction of Arthur C. Meyers, has rechecked the matters, and has found not one

"Remember, also, that the city held up a balance due to Ryckoff, and that he went into Circuit Court and mandamused Nolte to pay th ney. Mayor Miller directed the lity Counselor to apply to the Su eme Court for a writ of pro-bition, which the Supreme Cour lenied. The matter was settled by Nolte, and compromised after a large payment by Ryckoff. The Democrats, who have indorsed Nolte, should be satisfied with this And the public should withhold udgment. "In the last four years Mayo Miller's administration has expended some 42,000,000 revenue ear and $33,000,000 bond is: unds, nearly $200,000,000 in all And the only thing that a bitt opposition and an antagonistic press have been able to charge is, oats that an outside contractor, whom Mayor Miller opposed and his enemies supported, skinned the job to a change to McDaniel would simply to hard on him so long as he Wednesday night, a second victim mies supported, skinned the job to the extent of $175,000. And we don't know yet whether that is true. If it is true, the guilty person will be punished. And remember that your Mayor is free of any connection with this."

MISSOURI BILL TO INCREASE SUPREME JUDGES PASSED

House Adopts Measure to Raise torate to Vote on It.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 22. -A measure to submit to the voters of Missouri a constitutional amendment increasing the number of Missouri Supreme Court Judges from seven to nine was passed by the House of Representatives yes-

The measure provides that the Governor appoint the two addi-tional Judges, should the amendment be approved by the voters at the 1930 November election. In 1931 the court could be divided into three divisions, each to be composed of three Judges and designated as divisions. The court en bane would assign each Judge to his division and would elect a Chief Justice. Under the amendment the court would be empowered to call in one or more Circuit Judges to fill vacancies, and could also summon lawyers with suitable qualifications to sit in special cases.

The manufacturers who employ these shoe spies believe that their snooping activities are not known to the makers of DIXIE SHOES. But DIXIE SHOE manufacturers say they know the identity of the concerns who have sent out these

The recent numerous visits of the shoe spies are due to the new Spring DIXIE SHOES, which have tossed a bombshell into the shoe industry.

Competing manufacturers are trying to find out how DIXIE can turn out shoes that show such careful workmanship in every detail—shoes of such high grade materials—and sell them for $3. They have taken apart pair after pair in a futile attempt to discover some revolutionary manufacturing method. turing method.

DIXIE owners say there's no secret about their business at all. They tell other manufacturers what they want to know!

Other manufacturers can give the same kind of values as DIXIES if they're willing to work on as small a margin as DIXIE does! But other manufacturers think too much of their profits to cut down on them!

Other manufacturers can buy good materials as low as DIXIE buys them—if they buy in as big quantities! But they haven't got DIXIE'S four factories and colossal buying power—so they

BLAIR & CO. BANK

New York House Takes Over Bank of America and Bancamerica Corporation.

By the Associated Prem.

NEW YORK, March 22 .- The Bank of America and the Bane nerica Corporation, its affiliated ecurity company, both controlled A. P. Giannini interests of San Francisco, were merged yesterday with the international banking house of Blair & Co. The merged corporation will have capital and surplus of more than $125,000,000 and total resources of approximately $500,000,000. The merger will be made on the basis of exchange of stock, the terms of which are to be announced later. Blair & Co.'s banking business by America. The securities business Loans of Blair will be consolidated with of Blair will be consolidated with the Bancamerica Corporation. The headquarters of the merged organ-for the ization will be at 44 Wall street, reached which has been the location of 722,000 the Bank of America since 1812. Elisha Walker, president of Blair & Co., will become president of reserve Bancamerica Corporation and chairman of the Executive Committee of the Bank of America.

Dr. A. H. Giannini, a brother of for the A. P. Giannini, will remain chair-that da Edward C. Delafield will remain them to president of the Bank of America. The official and clerical organiza-tions of the two companies will be retained. The bank's board will e enlarged by additions from Young.

Affiliated With Another. The Transamerica Corporation. would serve on one of than $1.-Giannini, will be closely affiliated with the merged houses.

that after the merger was effect-ed, the Transamerica would hold a controlling stock interest in the consolidated houses. Transameri-ca's present holdings in the institution will remain intact, but in-creased capitalization to be voted by the Bank of America and Banc-america Corporation as a result of the merger will pass to Blair & Co. interests. The concern is to be managed entirely in New York, Walker said. The merger came as a surprise to Wall street, where bank merger tumors, started by the recent con-bolidation of the Guaranty Trust Co and the National Bank of Commerce, had linked the Bank of at 5 pe Bank. Walker is a director of the Chase National, and he explained that the present friendly relations with the Chase interests would of los continue. No merger with the banks Government Order Presumed to Have Followed Plea of Mexican President.

WASHINGTON, March 22 .-Having decided to grant asylum to Mexican rebels who seek safety in this country, the American Gov-ernment has moved to see to it that they do not bring any gold or silver with them.

Export of these metals is for-bidden by Mexican law, and, although their import into this country is not illegal, the Treasury Department has instructed its Customs Codectors at El Paso, Tex... and Nogales and Douglas, Ariz.. to examine all individuals coming across the border and to notify the Mexican. Government if any is found in their possession

The order was issued at the sug-gestion of the State Department, which is presumed to have acted on representations from the Mexican Government. President Portes Gil announced some time ago that he would ask the United States for

First Aid for Burns

INOR accidents often occur M while working around the house that may easily be taken care of to avoid more serious complications. An article in the March issue of the People's Home Journal suggests that there be a handy first aid book in the kitchen ready for reference at a moment's notice. One of the several remedies given in this article is that for burns and scalds, probably the most common accident met with in the

"Make a thin paste of baking soda, starch or flour. Smear this over the burned part, and also over the cloth used to cover it. Use a light bandage to hold this dressing in place. The main idea in the treatment of slight burns and scalds, where the skin is reddened but not destroyed, is the exclusion of air. Olive oil, fresh lard, or even cream will serve and may be used if there is no soda, starch or flour readily available. This same treatment may be used where small blisters form, and for sunburn also. Never puncture a blister; and if it breaks do not remove the skin. Re-member a broken blister is an open wound, and liable to infection."

Don't Misuse Them Tea towels are meant for better tasks than lifting hot dishes and pans from the stove and will burn nuickly when so abused. Buy one or two 16-cent padded holders for purpose and save the linen

MEDICAL QUESTIONS

Health and sanitation questions of public interest only will be considered. Diagnosis or treatment of individual cases will not be given.

W. C. C. JR.—As you ask for an opinion, the probability is that if you leave off smoking cigarettes and abstain from tea and coffee, and all alcoholics, taking systematic outdoor exercise such as walking, you will have no more troublic from the discomfort experienced by waking at night. A hot bath at bedtime and a cold shower in the morning with a vigorous rubdown will prove beneficial.

THANK YOU.—It is possible, as you ask that the condition could be corrected. For this the only service to offer you is recommending a physician, and this will be done if you send a stamped, addressed envelope. Proper diet is sidered. Diagnosis or treatment of individual cases will not be given.

PEKN, March 23.—Chi Kung-Huan, provincial government day. A councillor in Pekin and long a prominent figure in the Republi-can mayor for China wheel c can movement in China, was sunshine assassinated in front of his home walked tonight after alighting from a Two ricksha coolles were arrest-

Two ricksha coolles were arrested, but police doubted their conaction with the assassination.

Pekin was deeply stirred by the affair because of the strained political conditions along the Yangtae. The political significance of the shooting was felt to lie in the fact that Chi Kung-huan was long a devoted friend of the late Sun Tat Sen, leader of the Republican movement. The victim was a years old. He was a native of Mukden and went to Kwangsi more than 20 years ago where he served under Sun Tat Sen. He came to Pekin last summer.
